After spending almost a dedicated decade on matchmaking, I have concluded that I must offer my services in 2 broad categories.

The first category is named as "Paid Category" which is designed for the people looking for personal and confidential matchmaking across globe. (your information and pictures will not be published on any website which I owned) In this category I will send you around 20 to 36 handpicked marriage proposals against a fees of 300 US dollar (1100 Dirham) or equivalent in your local currency to send potential bride groom from the country where you are living. Our main expertise are in USA, UK, Canada, Australia, Europe, Dubai and Middle Eastern Countries.

The second category is named as "Free Category" which is designed mainly for the poor woman or man who cannot afford my fees, (Non-working ladies or gentleman those are earning below 300US$ or equivalent will be entertained in this category) their information and 3 pictures (three pictures in the same clothing from 3 different angles so no one can use anyone else images, because it's hard to get such images of others from online resource). Your complete ethical information with your email address (no mobile number will be published to avoid dating) will be posted on my website either on www.shaadi.group or www.Nikah.group (Ahmed International matchmaker have a right to accept or reject any profile without giving any reason, and the decision will be treated as final). The second category is design just to help poor people, profiles will be published just to give benefit to the poors, so no legal obligation or legal suit will be entertained in any circumstances, anywhere in the world.
